

FELIPE OVIEDO ROSCOE

Head of Corporate
D. +54 11 3220-2556
foviedo@cfgd.com.ar

Felipe currently leads the Corporate department and also actively participates in the M&A and Finance practices.

As part of his Corporate practice, Felipe coordinates corporate advice to recurring clients of the firm, establishing himself as a point of contact for the attention of all kinds of matters arising from management. His work also focuses on the legal aspects of new technologies, Internet law and data protection.

He conducts his practice for all kinds of clients of the firm, and especially for companies that were targets of mergers or acquisitions in which the firm participated, taking advantage of the knowledge and relationships acquired during said processes.

Felipe has been part of the firm since its foundation in 2011, and was previously an associate at Cárdenas, Di Cío, Romero, Tarsitano & Lucero and Muñoz de Toro Abogados. In all cases he participated in the corporate advice of local and international clients, mainly in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, commercial law and corporate law. In his professional career he has participated in highly complex operations, covering a wide range of industries.

Felipe graduated as a lawyer at the University of Buenos Aires in 2005 (with honors) and completed a Master's Degree in Law and Economics at Torcuato Di Tella University and post-graduate courses in Argentina and abroad (including the Annual Academy of American and International Law dictated at the Center for American and International Law of Texas).