

VALERIA D'ALESSANDRO

Head of Tax
D. +54 11 3220-2550
vdalessandro@cfgd.com.ar

Within the last 15 years, she worked at the Taxation Department of the biggest law firm in Argentina, and headed as a Partner, the Tax Law and Wealth Planning Department of a top tier Tax & Legal firm. Previously, she worked at the Legal Division of the United Nations in Vienna.

Holds a Master's Degree in Tax Law from the Argentine Catholic University and participated in the International Tax Law Course at Leiden University (The Netherlands). Certified International Compliance and Ethics Officer from the Asociación Argentina de Ética y Compliance and the Universidad del CEMA.

Professor on various postgraduate courses on Tax Law at the Argentine Catholic University and also at the University of Miami's Law School. Author of seven books on tax law and winner of an award from the Taxation Section of the International Bar Association for her paper on Resolution of International Tax Disputes. Awarded as "Woman in Tax Leader in Argentina", by "International Tax Review" for three consecutive years (2016-2018).

Speaker in several conferences and seminars in Argentina and abroad, including International Fiscal Association, Taxation Section of the International Bar Association, American Bar Association, Florida Bar Association, "STEP (advising families across generations)" and the "Instituto Latinoamericano de Derecho Tributario".

Member of the International Fiscal Association and the Argentine Fiscal Association.

Co-founder of the international network "Women in Tax Law" (WITL). Co-chair of "YIN" (Young IFA Network).

Ranked by Chambers & Partners since 2009 (both editions, "Global" and "Latin America"), Legal 500 and World Tax as leading professional in her area of expertise.