

SEBASTIÁN TOLEDO

Head of Banking
D. +54 11 2150-5628
stoledo@cfgd.com.ar

Sebastian Toledo is Head of Corporate Banking of Córdoba Francos Abogados with focus on local and international corporate clients advice regarding corporate matters, agreements, banking and public law. Prior to joining the firm, Sebastian was general counsel at Banco Meridian for over a decade before becoming a high level officer in the internal control of the public sector.

Sebastian received his law degree from the University of Buenos Aires (Magna cum Laude, 2002) and a post graduate degree in Universidad Torcuato Di Tella. He is associate professor at University of Buenos Aires and the post graduate School of the Office of the National Attorney General.

We have a thorough and dynamic insight of the banking and financial industries and transactions. We provide advice to financial and non-financial entities regarding banking and finance regulatory matters, with a broad experience in consulting, transactions and judiciary proceedings including: Sovereign and sub-sovereign credit, Local and Foreign Trade finance, Leasing transactions, Trusts, Portfolio acquisition and leveraged finance, Banking regulatory matters and proceedings.